PRESS RELEASE

We're not in Trouble, We're in Transition – Bishop Carlton Pearson, one of the most beloved Pentecostal Christian Personalities of his generation becomes an influencer at First Unity Spiritual Campus.

07/1/2020, St. Petersburg, FL – Bishop Carlton Pearson, author, sacred activist and spiritual teacher is set to participate in the Sunday Celebration Service livestreamed, July 12th from First Unity Spiritual Campus in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Joining such notable names as Marianne Williamson, Panache Desai, Deborah King, Rev. Dr. Michael Bernard Beckwith, Laura Day, Robert Clancy, Florence Ann Romano and others appearing at First Unity this year. "2020, is our year of the influencer" so proclaimed by the Rev. Dr. Temple Hayes, Spiritual Leader at First Unity Spiritual Campus.

Bishop Carlton Pearson, once labeled an American Heretic in the movies, Come Sunday, a movie based on his life and ministry and An American Heretic which premiered at the Sundance Film Festival in 2018, both are now available on Netflix. Thousands have filled arenas and churches to hear him sing, preach and inspire. Things dramatically changed when he stood in his mega church pulpit to proclaim a new doctrine, he quite simply had a "New Thought". This controversial doctrine polarized faith communities all over the world.

Bishop Pearson's frank and often controversial take on a number of different subjects has earned him appearances in film and television like NBS's Dateline; ABC's Nightline: 20/20; Good Morning America, CBS Evening News with Dan Rather; BET Tonight with Tavis Smiley; The Edge with Paula Zahn, Politically Incorrect with Bill Maher, Today with Megyn Kelly and a number of other television, radio and print media outlets.

Join First Unity Spiritual Campus as they host Bishop Carlton Pearson during Sunday Celebration Service simulcast livestream July 12, 2020 at 11:30am (edt) on facebook and You Tube (@unitycampus /firstunityspiritualcampus).
