PRESS RELEASE

Intuition to heal the world – Laura Day becomes an influencer at First Unity Spiritual Campus.

05/22/2020, St. Petersburg, FL – Laura Day, Practical Intuitive and Influencer to the world, is set to participate in the Sunday Celebration Service livestreamed, May 31st from First Unity Spiritual Campus in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Joining such notable names as Marianne Williamson, Panache Desai, Deborah King, Rev. Dr. Michael Bernard Beckwith, Florence Ann Romano, Robert Clancy and others appearing at First Unity this year. “2020, is our year of the influencer” so proclaimed by the Rev. Dr. Temple Hayes, Spiritual Leader at First Unity Spiritual Campus.

Laura Day, bestselling author and respected intuitive who makes her home in London has been recently highlighted in world news because she demonstrates the practical, verifiable uses of intuition for her high profile fans, like Demi Moore, Bruce Willis, Jennifer Aniston, Brad Pitt and others. Her most recent book is Practical Intuitive and yet it is a book she wrote and released in 2009 that has gained much interest during the COVID 19 Quarantine How to Rule the World From Your Couch.

From Vulture.com / New York, “Did the author know, a decade ago, that we would all be stuck in our homes right now, trying to get our lives together while the world around us was falling apart? “I am usually prepared for the things that occur in my life,” she told me the other day. “That is the gift of precognition.” A pale, blonde beauty in her early 60s, with prominent cheekbones, vivid blue-gray eyes, and glittering gold earrings hanging nearly to her shoulders, Day claims to be what you might describe as a psychic, though she prefers to refer to herself as a practicing intuitive. Whatever you call her; there can be little doubt that her instincts have brought her prominence.”
